Love and Marriage

THERE are numerous lineaments in the palms for marriage prognosis and the Line of Marriage in the Mount of Mercury is only a tip of the iceberg!!!.

Salient features of the four dimensional analysis system are mounts, lines, thumb and fingers.

All vital events can be predicted by this system. The axiom "The deficiency of one faculty is compensated by the efficiency of other faculties" applies to Palmistry also. If the Line of life is short, broken or cut by horizontal lines, we have to examine the Rascette, mounts the thumb, fingers and other chief lines in both the hands (Fig 1).

It is an established and verified fact that some marvellous lines and signs are the exclusive domain of women, for they have the immense benefit of intelligence and intuition as symbolized by the shape and form of their line of head. The broadness of the mounts above the line of heart in majority of Women's hands distinctly reveal their propensity for forbearance.

Many readers are quite familiar with the basics of Palmistry and therefore only selective and minimum illustrations of combinations common to all mounts are given. A pure hand is non-existent and no two hands are similar.

The Mount of Jupiter

A predominant mount of Jupiter reveals the subject's talents, ambitions, love and marriage career prospects and longevity. An eligible bachelor, if a Jupiterian, will be courted by beautiful girls belonging to aristocratic families. This mount is well-developed hereditarily will be wealthy and cultured persons. A Jupiterian full of vim and vitality, an ideal husband and very fond of children. A Girl influenced by this mount is an ideal match to him.

One or more of the following favourable combinations will enhance the fortunes of the subjects and are common to all mounts:

- The thumb is usually long and strong. The ring of family, which separates the thumb and the mount of Venus must be well formed indicative of strong will power and domestic harmony.
- The four main lines, viz. Life, Head, Heart and Fate are rarely uniformly well-formed. It is luckier to have lesser bad signs. If the Line of Heart has a fork, trident, square or cross in the mounts of Jupiter/Saturn, chequered career, peaceful domestic life and good health are indicated.
- Smooth fingers with rounded tips indicate Natural and practical ability.
- Continuation of the Line of Life reaching the mount of Jupiter with a pyramid, fork, Trident or square sign makes up for a short or broken Line of Life and also indicates a brilliant and successful life. (Fig. 3)

CONTINUATION of the Line of Life reaching the mount of Jupiter with a pyramid, fork, Trident or square sign makes up for a short or broken Line of Life and also indicates a brilliant and successful life.

- A cross between the Lines of Head and Heart (without touching these lines) in the plain of Mars indicate long and happy married life, inheritance and career advancement.
- Line of Mars running close to the Line of Life is a symbol of energy and good character. In some palms, there will also be a Line of Venus which indicates constancy in love. Savants aptly call it "Triple Line of Life".
- Line of Marriage: It is also called the Line of Union / Attachment. It should remain without breaks or spots. There may be more than one line but the line closer to the Line of Heart is the qualifying entity. The other lines indicate either the alliances negotiated failed or the suitors opted out of the courtship. There are numerous lineaments in the palms for marriage prognostics and the Line of Marriage in the Mount of Mercury is only a tip of the iceberg!!!.
- The presence of Solomon's ring (very rare) dangling clearly at the base of the Jupiter Finger indicates fame due to ingenuity and hardwork.
- Cupid's bow with a fork, trident or square at either end in the centre of the Mount of Venus or very close to the ring of family is a very rare and lucky sign of a long passionate love affair with a happy ending in wedlock. It could be found exclusively in women's palms. A triangle in the centre of the bow indicates a long and happy married life. (Fig 4.)

- If the Line of Fate starts from the Mount of Moon with a branch merging in the Mount of Upper Mars, one of the spouses will belong to a different country. (Fig 5)

A predominant Mount of Sun is a blessing. An ascending Line of Sun, good mounts of Jupiter, Mercury and Venus indicate that a solar subject is a dynamic man who will bring sunshine and cheerfulness to a woman throughout her life.

- In the palms of successful men who attain fame in an alien land, Line of fate terminates in the mount of Jupiter, with the line of Sun starting from the mount of upper Mars reaching the base of the third finger with these combinations. An upward line from the Line of Fate reaching the centre of the mount of Venus indicates the subject may marry a lady of his adopted country.

Some of the unfavourable combinations common to all mounts.

- A shapeless flabby thumb with dark spots, bars and islands - lazy, unsteady character.
- Chained / barbed lines in the ring of family—Hatred of family members and relatives.
- Mount of Mercury separated from the Mount of Sun by a deep valley - a bad sign indicating a vagrant life.
- Tassels / Sprigs from the Mount of Venus cutting across the Line of life, Head and Fate—Domestic unhappiness and separation (Sometimes this indicates more than one marriage)
- Oversized base of the Mount of Moon — excessive indulgence in gambling and other undesirable activities, (Debts and bankruptcy, white collar crimes etc.,)

- Line of Head drooping too low in the Mount of Moon — passions affecting progress in life.
- The presence of stars except in the Mount of Jupiter — Hardwork and honesty will go unrewarded
- A line from the Mount of Lower Mars joining the line of marriage—more than two / three marriages. (Fig 6)

Line from lower Mars touching the line of marriage indicates more than 2/3 marriages.

The Mount of Saturn

A well-developed Mount of Saturn, free of blemishes could be seen only in a few palms. The hypothesis portraying a Saturnian as a malefactor is untenable. A strong conscience, hardwork and sacrifice are his main qualities. He is an ideal husband and demands discipline in domestic life and desires his private life to be impervious. A girl ruled by this mount gets full marks as a good housewife.

One or more of the following combinations beneficial to Saturnians are generally applicable to other mounts also:

- The finger of Saturn should be long and the length of the phalanges are preferably equal.
- The Line of Fate touching the base of the finger—A chequered career. In a few palms, there may be a double Line of Fate in addition to the Line of Sun indicating prosperous life, Inheritance, beneficiary of sudden stroke of luck.
- A fork, Trident, Triangle, square or pyramid on the Mount of Saturn — Allround prosperity.
- A well-developed Mount of Venus, Upper and Lower Mars —Domestic harmony. (The benefic and malefic combinations described for the mount of Jupiter are attributable to the Mount of Saturn also.)

The Mount of Sun

A predominant Mount of Sun is a blessing. A person's health, wealth and happiness can be predicted by virtue of the combination of various mounts, main lines and secondary lines plus auspicious signs. A solar subject is also more susceptible to capricious ways of life. An ascending Line of Sun, good mounts of Jupiter, Mercury and Venus indicate that a solar subject is a dynamic man who will bring Sunshine and cheerfulness to a woman throughout her life.

The Line of Sun starting from the middle of the Mount of Moon and an upward branch Line from the Line of Fate touching the base of the third finger will bless the native to become a celebrity over-night. He is most likely to be an heir to large Estates. (Fig 7)

Fig: 7

Line of Sun and a branch line from Line of Fate touching the third finger.
— A sign of sudden stroke of luck.

The above combinations may present a different picture if lines from the mount of Mars and / or the ring of family penetrate the lines of Life and Fate and disperse in the mounts of Moon and Upper Mars. The marital life of the couple will be an "Agni Pariksha". (The benefics and malefics combination described for Jupiter is applicable to Sun also.)

The Mount of Mercury

A predominant mount of Mercury belongs to destiny's chosen few whose meteoric rise in life may surprise their friends and relatives. Evidence has shown that at least two out of hundred Mercurians in acting career appear to be reaching the top position in the filmdom.

A Mercurian is a good companion for life and believes in the traditional values of family life. Good mounts of Mars (both Upper and Lower) and Venus are the best combination for a Mercurian's marital stability. An excellent rosy palm with a flabby thumb, round fingers, oversized mounts of Saturn, Moon and Venus indicate that the subject will be mercurial in his relationship with women. This combination exposes a compulsive gambler, a liar and a swindler. If the Line of Marriage has a downward curve touching the Heartline, then the marriage will not last long. (The benefic and malefic combinations described for Jupiter are applicable to Mercury also)

A Mercurian is a good companion for life and believes in the traditional values of family life. Good mounts of Mars (both Upper and Lower) and Venus are the best combination for a Mercurian's marital stability.

The Mount of Mars

Well-developed mounts of Upper and Lower Mars belongs to an exclusive club.

A Martian is wedded to the sacred "one man—one woman" ethic and personifies a man of distinguished valour. A pyramid, triangle or a trident in one of the mounts of Mars is always a sign of riches and honours coming to the subject after many struggles. Such a combination could be found in the palms of eminent commandos of the army, known for their Tarzanic audacity and valiant spirit.

A good mount of Venus, perfect ring of family and more than one rascette are the best combination for a martian. In a woman's palm these are the most auspicious signs denoting fame and riches, acquired through personal merit.

(The benefic and malefic signs described for Jupiter applies to Mars also).

The Mount of Moon

Opinions differ on the physical and mental peculiarities of lunar subjects. No two mounts are alike and several factors affect the character of the subjects and the mount of Moon is not exempted. A good line of Mars a long and strong thumb and a better mount of Venus are signs of vitality and best qualities of an ideal husband.

A lunar subject loves his wife and as a father, he is the best example to others. He would like to have his wife with him even when he gets around the world during his business trips.

A woman influenced by this mount is supposed to be the best choice, if a man wants to experience real love. She wins her man's heart by every means and she is a gifted cook.

(Benefic and Malefic combinations attributed to Jupiter applies to Moon also).

The Mount of Venus

This mount is a repository of vital data on every aspect of life,

Virgo Lagna :

Mixed results are indicated. Those suffering from diabetes must be careful. Troubles in married life are seen. The son-in-law may face some difficulties. You may become sensuous and passionate. Some of you will hurt others with harsh tongue if born with Mars / Ketu in the 2nd house. Though most of you would intend leading luxurious life, you should be careful in spending. Avoid debts. Good food and parties are indicated.

Love and Marriage

especially those connected with love affairs, marriage and family life. A person's longevity, parentage, profession, temperament and procreational vitality are also reflected in this mount.

A man influenced by this mount will be an ardent lover and a faithful husband. A woman swayed by this mount is an embodiment of beauty and love. She will sacrifice anything for her husband's happiness.

A good number of Venusian girls, with uninterrupted lines of Sun and Mercury excel in their chosen field of arts or science. They attain celebrity status and become wealthy but these lines (Sun and Mercury) often cause problems in finding a suitable alliance resulting in late marriages. For such girls, the Headline should not droop in the mount of Moon. This is indicative of more than one legal union and illegitimate progeny.

The combination of favourable and unfavourable lines, signs etc., attributed to mount of Jupiter applies to this mount also.
